Overview

We want to hear the views of local residents and organisations on the Neighbourhood Plan for Stoke Hammond.

In September 2021, the Parish of Stoke Hammond was designated a neighbourhood area by Buckinghamshire Council. This followed an application by Stoke Hammond Parish Council.

Stoke Hammond Parish Council has now completed a period of local community engagement on the Stoke Hammond Neighbourhood Plan and have submitted the final version to us.

The next stage of the process is for us, as the local authority, to carry out a public consultation on the submitted plan.

This is the final opportunity for local people to comment on the plan before it goes to independent examination.

The Stoke Hammond Neighbourhood Plan includes policies to shape local development to:

- introduce a settlement boundary
- introduce a design code
- identify local heritage assets
- identify a green infrastructure network
- support sustainable and active travel

- influence housing mix
- improve building energy performance
- influence residential parking and improve traffic management
- allocate sites for housing
- protect community facilities
